

Continuous Improvement Plan FPP10 Pulp and Paper Manufacturing Industry Training Package

February 2011 Update

	SCOPE OF WORK, INDUSTRY, SECTOR AND OCCUPATIONS/SKILLS INVOLVED	INDUSTRY IMPERATIVES FOR THE WORK	LIKELY QUALIFICATION LEVELS AFFECTED	RESPONSIBLE STAFF MEMBER OR CONSULTANT	TIMELINES FOR START OF WORK & SUBMISSION TO NQC
1	Incorporate units in Diploma to address policy and process design and implementation of environmental sustainability priorities for the industry.	As the industry strives to increase its competitiveness these new changes need to be reflected in the training package	Diploma	Ruth Geldard	ISC upgrade June 2011
2	Scope the need for advanced technical skills to operate machinery/manufacturing processes.	Identified need by industry to address technological advances of equipment and processes	Cert IV	Ruth Geldard	September 2012
3	Scope and identify specific competencies for operation and maintenance of pulp and paper machinery and develop unit/s.	Identified need by industry to provide specialist skills training for maintenance of machinery	Cert III and IV	Ruth Geldard	September 2012
4	Scope the need for quality assurance focus throughout manufacturing process.	Industry need to integrate quality assurance throughout process	Cert III and IV	Lee-Anne Bowles	September 2012
5	Investigate the need for core cutting and decorating to be incorporated in the package.	Industry need for specialist skills	Cert III	Ruth Geldard	September 2013
6	Scope and develop rigging and dogging units specific to the specialised lifting processes used in pulp and paper manufacturing.	Industry need to contextualise units for this high risk activity	Cert III or IV	Lee-Anne Bowles	September 2014